My dear Levushka,

I am at present stationed at Hull and am taking the opportunity to pen you a few lines.

First of all, I write in the name of Valentin and request you and Lodn not to write any more temporary in his name, because he is very much afraid that he will be subjected to repressive measures for removing. He is already registered as having removed and this is causing him a lot of unpleasantness in his work and, at the present moment, he is expecting other complications. All this, of course, for you is incomprehensible, but such are our conditions of life.

As for me, I write you only when I am abroad and, for that reason, in all the numerous forms that have to be filled in, I am disowning all contact with you. I think this will not be discovered, although our agency - that is - Soviet - penetrates everywhere.

In general, I am living in the old way, that is to say, I am sailing and am in L - on now and then.

I do not know if I will continue long there because my health becomes worse and worse and circumstances do not permit being treated or even taking a rest. They give no leave and nothing can be done in the few days we are in L - on, in this respect, to say nothing of being in a complete state of going out of one's mind. In general, a lunatic asylum.

Demands are increasing daily and concurrently with them every punitive (illegible).

It is impossible to fulfill all this.

Now matters have gone so far that they are demanding precise railway punctuality and are not admitting storms or fogs, in fact - nothing.- Subsequently, I have fears that they will stop altogether paying the 18% in bills on Torgain and will commandeer. Then it will be perfectly cheery - without *the word used is "militarize".

prices for products etc.

All this cutting of prices will have as a result (illegible) because the cost of all remains almost inaccessible.

Perhaps, I will quit the water transport prior to suspension and, in general, the future - even the immediate future, is for me very hazy.

I am very glad for your sake that you are living in normal human society and enjoying all the rights of a human being. Never let the idea cross your mind to return.

Bye the bye, have you read "Peter the First" by Alexsei Tolstoy? The psychology and in general the physiognomy of the Russian during that epoch are astoundingly well portrayed and truly shown in the book. But this is only a mask, from the imposing side:- it is an exact copy from the present time.

I am hurrying for the post and my thoughts are dispersed. The next time I will write you more. In the meantime, keep well. I kiss you and lady strongly.

If I should hear of some port designated on a long sea trip, I will let you know and you can send me a letter addressed to it (there).

Under no circumstances, must you send a letter to Leningrad, but (illegible) to Valentin.

P.S. Perhaps, in course of time, this will be possible. I again kiss you and embrace your brother Art- (illegible)

This photograph was ^ataken instantaneously and for that reason is very dim. I think it is I, but I do not guarantee the likeness.

Sir,

We are very indignant when we learn of the criminal acts of Japanese imperialism now occurring in China, which have induced us to found the World League against Conquest and Colonisation, with the object of conducting an energetic campaign throughout the whole world in opposition to Nippon barbarism which means to reduce the millennial civilisation of China to the humiliating level of Colonies.

You know that for the past few years Japan has been detested by America and the European Powers. Therefore it is not unseasonable to force by means of popular pressure England, The United States, Germany, Russia and France to react against your aggressor by useful collective action.

Now to succeed in such a grandiose scheme as this we naturally need adherents in all countries, especially in China. To this end we forward you herewith membership forms and request that you will be so good as to return them to us after filling them in. We shall be glad to have you join our World League so that you may collaborate with us in saving the honour and independence of your country.

Hoping to hear from you shortly,

Yours sincerely

of the
WORLD LEAGUE AGAINST CONQUEST AND COLONISATION to all countries to all races
to all continents.

-----ooo-----

Comrades;

Japan has put into operation the TANAKA plan, which consists in systematically conquering China in three stages.

She has begun by detaching from China a third of her territory. This is the first stage.

She is going to make an excuse for seizing the territories thus detached : the second stage.

Then with the men which she will incorporate into the five provinces newly annexed she will seek a motive for conquering all the remainder of China : third stage.

This policy will place an everlasting yoke around the necks of all Chinese. The lands which their ancestors have taken hundreds of centuries to acquire at a price measured in rivers of blood, will, in the twinkling of an eye, pass into the infamous hands of the Japanese. In the 20th century, utterly disregarding the League of Nations, Japanese imperialism treads under foot the honour of China and the dignity of her 400 million people.

Men and women of all countries. Support your Chinese brothers. Help them to throw their invaders into the sea. Compel your governments to mobilize ~~your~~ their fleets and come to the assistance of your Chinese brothers.

This appeal is made in every country of the World.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you in reply to your letter No.612, Character Tseng, that action was taken against the printer and distributor of the Min Chung Chow Pao after it came to the notice of the S.M.P. that the publication in question was not registered with the proper authorities. On the authority of Search Warrants Nos. 1992 and 1993, copies of the magazine were seized at 390 Wuchow Road and 278 Foochow Road, the works department and shop of the Kai Ming Bookstore respectively. Examination of copies seized revealed that the magazine contravenes the Order of the National Government dated June 10, 1935, which is covered by Article 153, Section 2, of the Chinese Criminal Code therefore charges under said Article of the C.C.C. and Article 7 of the Press Law were brought against Mr. Tsang Lih Sung, Manager of Kai Ming Bookstore, by means of Summons No.8370 issued by the Shanghai First Special Area District Court. The case was before the Court on May 28 when it was remanded to June 2, 1937, for pleading.

Shanghai Municipal Council.

Gentlemen,

Instructional Order No. 857 has been received from the Shanghai City Government to the following effect:-

"According to a report of Lih Tso under the date of May 21, 1937 Min Chung Weekly edited by the Weiping Common Language Publishing Association was seized by the Settlement Authorities and persons responsible were arraigned before the Special District Court on charges of having committed an offence against public order, incited others to commit an offence and violated the Press Law, on a previous day. Hence Min Chung Weekly has applied for registration which is being under consideration by the Shanghai City Government, it is necessary to ascertain the report. You are hereby directed to make discreet inquiries and report your findings so that the question of registration may be finally decided upon."

In consequence of the foregoing, I request you to be good enough to verify the above newspaper report and favour me with a reply in due course.

Translation of an extract from an article entitled "Railways in China" published in the "Min Chung Chow Pao" (民衆時報), Vol. 3, Issue 4 :-

The British, French, German and Japanese robbers loudly advocated equal enjoyment of privileges;

They all wanted to seize control of railroads.

France intended to occupy our territory in the South-west, And built the Yunnan-Annam Railway.

French soldiers were stationed along the line;

It was very dangerous.

Britain was as bad.

She built a railway in Kowloon,

By which she took control of the south gate of China.

The economic invasion was deplorable.

British troops were stationed in Hongkong.

If anything happened, they could come immediately by the railway and commit violent acts.

Germany forcibly occupied Kiaochow and Tsingtao,

And constructed a railway from Tsinan to Lutung,

The wealth of Shantung was thus seized by her.

Japan was fighting against Russia.

She built the Antung-Fengtien Railway, connecting Chosen with Liaoning.

She used the railway to transport soldiers.

She was so ambitious that she acted insanely.

After the Russo-Japanese war, the South Manchurian Railway came under control of Japan.

Using the railways as bases, Japan decided upon a "continental policy" to invade Manchuria and Mongolia.

The above-mentioned railways are like blood-sucking leeches.

The people were deprived of all their wealth.

The Powers set up a net of invasion and clearly demarcated their spheres of influence.

Our territory will become that of others.

Is this not painful?

Further to attached file, the reason the matter was referred to the M.A. for advice was because of the fact that Article 7 of the Press Law provides only for punishment of the publisher for non-registration.

While there is good reason to believe that the magazine in question is being printed at 390 Wuchow Road, and sold at 278 Foochow Road, a printed notice on the cover of the magazine states that it is published by the Common Reading Matter Compilation Society (通俗读物编译社), c/o Yenching University, Peiping, which also requested that all contributions to the magazine be forwarded to that address. The M.A. while examining the question noticed that the contents of the magazine contained matter which is anti-foreign as well as anti-Japanese, and suggested that as there was difficulty in defining whether the publisher should be considered the printer in Shanghai or the Society in Peiping, a charge should be brought ^{against} the printer and distributor in Shanghai under Article 153, Section 2, of Chinese Criminal Code and a further charge under Article 7 of the Press Law, stating that in his opinion the matter contained in the magazine constituted a clear case contravening the order of the National Government, dated 10/6/35, which is covered by Article 153 of C.C.C.

IN SUMMARY COURT SOUTH A.M.

Proceedings Mr. Tsang appeared for the S.M.C.

Mr. Tsang : The accused is charged under Article 153(2) of the C.C.C. and further charged under Art. 7 of the Press Law. Acting on authority of Search warrant issued by this Court, the Police raided the premises of the Kai Ming Bookstore, No 278 Foochow Road, and also the premises at No. 390 Wuchow Road. On the above mentioned two premises, a number of 'Min Chung Chow Pao' which incited others to transgress the National Government Order of June 10th, 1935 were seized. It is found that the accused failed to register the said seized property.

Judge to accused :-

Q. Was the 'Min Chung Chow Pao' sold by you store ?.

A. Another shop asked us to sell the books on consignment.

We have sold it since the 22/1/37.

Q. Were the copies of Ming Chung Chow Pao found in your shop ?.

A. Yes.

Q. Why did you not register the Ming Chung Chow Pao ?.

A. The publisher of the Ming Chung Chow Pao had registered it at Peipang.

Q. When was it registered ?.

Mr. Sung Tsao Kyi appeared for the accused : It was registered in Peiping on the 9:10:36. Here is the evidence (produced).

It was also registered in Shanghai, and here are the certificate (produced). According to press Law, one can publish a magazine before the registration certificate is received.

Judge to accused :-

Q. When was the Ming Chung Chow Pao registered in Shanghai ?.

A. It was registered in Shanghai on the 13/1/37.

Q. Is there a Sales Office in Shanghai ?.

A. The Ming Chung Chow Pao was printed and sold by us. The editor of it is named Zien Ping Chong, while the publisher is named Lee Ya Fee.

Q. The Police found that the Ming Chung Chow Pao incited others to transgress the National Government Order of June 10th, 1935?.

A. The Min Chung Chow Pao was registered. Since we did not receive any order from the National Government prohibiting us ~~for~~ from selling same, we did not know that it incited others to transgress the National Government Order of June 10th, 1935. It was impossible for us to investigate the contents of every book sold by us.

Mr. Sung :- Here is a letter from the Union of Book-sellers stating that they did not receive any order from the Government prohibiting them from seeling the Ming Chung Chow Pao (letter and various kinds of orders produced).

Judge :- I will remand this case to next Wednesday for I want to investigate the Ming Chung Chow Pao.

Decision..... Remand to 2/6/37 a.m. for trial.

SUMMARY COURT (SOUTH) A.M.

Mr. Tsang appeared for the S.M. Council.
Mr. Tsang appeared for the accused.

Proceedings.

Mr. Sung:- On the 23-1-37, accused has submitted an application to the authorities for registration, otherwise the Post Office would not permit to deliver unregistered magazines.

Mr. Tsang:- There is no new developments after this case was remanded. Regarding the criminal part of the case, the exhibits have already been submitted to Your Honour, and I ~~ask~~ leave it to the moral conviction of Your Honour. Regarding the registration, accused forwarded the application on 23-1-37. On the 19-2-37, the City Government requested accused to send them several copies of the magazine, but accused failed to do so. Although the application was forwarded, but it has not been formally approved. I therefore ask Your Honour to punish him accordingly.

Judge to accused:-

When did you sell the magazines?

On 24-1-37.

Q. When did you apply for registration?

A. On 23-1-37.

Q. Have you received the formal registration certificate?

A. Not yet.

Q. Were the magazines seized in your shop?

A. Yes, but I did not read the contents myself. The magazines have been registered with the Government, who do not prohibit them.

Mr. Sung:- The accused only sold the magazines. He is not the author, nor the publisher. He therefore cannot be hold responsible for the criminal part of the case. As the magazine has already been registered both at Shanghai and Peiping, the ac-

Appeal by Accused Tsang Tih Sung (did not appear at Court)
Mr. Tsien appeared for the D.C.
Mr. Sun Leo Chi appeared for the Appellant.

Proceedings:-

Judge to Mr. Sun:- Give the reasons for the appeal.

Mr. Sun:- The publisher of the magazine entitled "Ting Chung Chow Pao" was one Lee Yuch Fei who also registered it with the Peiping and Shanghai Authorities under his name. The Appellant was not the publisher but only printed the magazines for the publisher. It will be recalled that the said magazine was first published on 2/12/36 after having been registered in Peiping. The certificate to prove this point was already produced in the Lower Court. Till 22/1/37 the magazine was also published in Shanghai and was again registered in the Shanghai City Government. With the reasons given above, I request Your Honour to pronounce the Appellant not guilty.

Mr. Tsien:- The said magazine was published by the Appellant of the Kai Ping Book Store. According to the Art. 7 of the Press Law, a magazine must be registered on 15 days before its publication. The magazine registered in Peiping might have different contents. If the Appellant published the magazine in Shanghai, he should have first registered it in due time. However, he failed to do so. The original judgment is quite just and I request Your Honour to uphold it.

Mr. Sun:- The magazine re-registered in Shanghai later is the same one as first registered in Peiping.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL

REPORT

Date August 9, 1938

Subject (in full) Fish Hong propose to increase the commission charged to fish stall keepers.

Made by D.I. Pan Lien Pih

Forwarded by

C. G. Gansford D. I.

At a joint meeting held on August 6, 1938 at No. 123 Quai de France, attended by members of the Cold Storage Owners' and Fish Hong Owners' Associations, a resolution was passed that from 11/8/38 the commission charged by fish hongs to fish stall keepers be increased from 1.5% to 3% because of the increased expenses incurred by the hongs in entertaining fishing boat owners and to offset the increase in pay granted to their employees. That in order to forestall any difficulty which may be experienced when the new rate of 3% is enforced on August 11, members of the association be despatched on the mornings of August 9, 10 and 11, to explain to stall keepers and hawkers the various factors which have necessitated the imposing of this increase.

No. D 7896

APPEAL TO BE LODGED AGAINST FINE FOR NON-REGISTRATION OF MAGAZINE

On May 18, over 10,000 copies of the "Min Chung Chow Pao" (民衆周報), a weekly magazine, published by the Common Reading Matter Compilation Society (通俗讀物編譯社) in Peiping, were seized by the Municipal Police at the Kai Ming Bookstore (開明書店), which is the sales office of the magazine in question, and Tsang Sih-sung (桑錫鏞), Manager of the store, was proceeded against at the Shanghai First Special District Court under Article 153, Section 2, of the Chinese Criminal Code and Article 7 of the Chinese Press Law for selling the magazine which is alleged to be anti-Japanese in nature and is not registered with the competent authorities concerned.

On the morning of June 4, the Court fined Tsang Sih-sung $30 for non-registration and dismissed the charge for contravening the order of the National Government under Article 153, Section 2, of the Chinese Criminal Code. The Court also directed that pending registration, the magazine should suspend publication.

According to information given by a responsible employee of the Kai Ming Bookstore, Li Ih-fei (李一飛) is the publisher of the magazine in question.

There is no reason for Tsang Sih-sung to undertake responsibility for the question of registration. Moreover, an application for registration was submitted when the magazine was published in Peiping and another application was forwarded to the local Tangpu Headquarters and Government organs when the sales office was removed to Shanghai.

Furthermore, Article 7 of the Chinese Press Law stipulates that application for registration should be submitted 15 days before the commencing of publication, but there is no ruling in the Law that the publication of those newspapers and magazines which have already submitted applications for registration should be prohibited before certificates of registration have been issued.

For this reason, Tsang Sih-sung has decided to lodge an appeal at the Second Branch of the Kiangsu High Court.

S.M.C. REQUESTED TO SUPPRESS STREET GAMBLING

The Shanghai First Special District Citizens' Federation yesterday morning sent the following letter to the S.M.C. :-

"This Federation is in receipt of the following letter from the 16th Branch Federation:-

"There is a triangular piece of vacant land along the Soochow Creek at the corner of Sinza and Park Roads, on which a crowd collects throughout the day. With the exception of those who look on at the street performers, the crowd engage themselves in gambling at "Yao Tan", "Ba Chiu" (Dominoes), dice, etc. The gamblers are labourers, hawkers and the like, and the stakes are quite large. It is really a gambling den on a small scale. Similar conditions exist in other parts of the Settlement. As such evil activities are liable to do serious harm to the people, it is requested that your Federation ask the S.M.C. to suppress them."

"In view of the above, the Council is requested to order the Police to suppress the gambling activities accordingly."

Subversive Matter?

ACCUSED of publishing an anti-Japanese weekly known as the "Min Chung Chow Pao," Tsang Sih-sung, manager of the Hai Ming Bookstore of 278 Peo-chow Road, was today charged with violation of article 153, section 2 of the Chinese Criminal Code. It is alleged that the magazine was intended to incite others to transgress the National Government order of June 10, 1935, against anti-Japanese activity. Tsang pleaded not guilty to the charge and the case was remanded until next week.

SEIZURE OF "MIN CHUNG CHOW PAO" : CONTAINS GENERAL FENG YU-HSIANG'S POEMS

The case regarding the seizure of the "Min Chung Chow Pao" (民衆週報), published by the Common Reading Matter Compilation Society (通俗讀物編輯社), Peiping, came up before the Shanghai First Special District Court on May 19. The Municipal Police gave as its reason for prosecution the fact that the seized magazine constituted a menace to peace and order, incited others to commit crimes and violated the Press Law.

On May 20, a responsible member of the Kai Ming Bookstore (開明書店) made the following statement to our reporter :- "Before the publication of the 'Min Chung Chow Pao', an application was submitted to the Ministry of Interior for registration. The magazine has been published in Shanghai from Volume Two, Issue No. 4. The management of the bookstore has presented the magazine to the Shanghai City Government for examination, and also requested the local Tangpu Headquarters to apply to the Central Propaganda Department for registration. Although the registration certificate has not yet been secured, the publication is not fundamentally contrary to the Press Law".

It is reported that the Settlement authorities are the movers of the seizure of the "Min Chung Chow Pao" and the search warrants were applied for by the Municipal Police to the Court.

On May 20, our reporter collected several copies of the "Min Chung Chow Pao" in an endeavour to find out why the magazine was seized. A perusal shows that it is an ordinary magazine. Besides containing articles by the editors and cartoons, the magazine frequently publishes the writings of General Feng Yu-hsiang, Vice-Chairman of the Military Affairs Commission. For instance, in its Volume 3, Issue No. 7, the magazine contains a poem written by General Feng concerning soldiers in farming districts. The following is part of this poem :-

"The four sides of the farming villages are silent.

"The sound of running water is heard in the room.

"Being unable to sleep, we sit up at mid-night,

"Pondering over our brethren who are being slaughtered.

"The four provinces have been stolen from us,

"The 3,000,000 rifles are taken over by the enemy.

"If we do not take the chance to-day to save the nation,

"We will soon see our race annihilated".

General Feng's poem written while living in the country is contained in Volume 3, Issue No. 5 of this magazine and many of his articles are published in other issues. It is believed that General Feng's writings do not violate the law.

The present editor of the magazine is Mr. Koo Chih-kong (顧志公) who is a graduate of the Peiping University and now a professor there. It is known that he is not a "radical element". The reason for the seizure of the "Min Chung Chow Pao" is still doubtful.

No information has come from the North after the seizure of the magazine and it is not known whether the magazine will be similarly seized in the North. The Manager of the Kai Ming Bookstore has notified the Common Reading Matter Compilation Society of the case.

Lih Pao published the following report on May 19, 1937.

COPIES OF MAGAZINE SEIZED BY POLICE

The Kai Ming Bookstore (開明書店), Foochow Road, was searched by Chinese and foreign detectives of the Central Police Station at about 4 p.m. May 18, when more than 10,000 copies of a weekly magazine entitled "Ming Chung Cheu Pao" (民衆週報 "People's Weekly"), which is edited and published by the Common Reading Matter Compilation Society (通俗讀物編刊社), Peiping, were taken to the Station. Searches were also carried out in bookstores and magazine companies along Foochow Road, and copies of the magazine in question seized in these premises were all removed to the Station.

It is said that the searches were executed on the order of the Court owing to the fact that the magazine had repeatedly published articles endangering friendly relations with foreign Powers.

The "Ming Chung Cheu Pao" ("People's Weekly") is published by one Li Ih-fei (李一飛). Formerly, the magazine was edited by one Hsu Ping-chong (徐炳超), but recently, the editorship has been undertaken by one Koo Chih-kong (顧頌剛), a professor of the Peiping University. The magazine contains mostly common reading matter and the major number of its readers are middle school students. The latest issue is Volume III, No.9.

The "Ming Chung Cheu Pao" was formerly printed in Peiping, but in order to secure an extensive sale of the magazine, the printing has been taken over by the Kai Ming Bookstore since Volume II, Issue No.4. About 7,000 copies were circulated in Peiping, but the circulation in Shanghai is poor.

It is understood that the magazine has already applied to the Central Propaganda Department of the Kuomintang for registration, but so far a registration certificate has not been received.

The First Special District Court will hear the case at 9 a.m. May 19.
